36th Street Church
of Christ (Group)

Has it been 100 years already? How does time fly? In less than three years, in May of 2024 (we're confirming the month), the 36th Street Church of Christ will become a century old!

Begun as the Pleasant Street Church of Christ in 1924 (on today's 34th Street after they were numbered), we took our present name when the new building was built on the opposite corner of our lot.

For how many decades have you been part of church life here? Who do you remember who worshipped here in years past? What stories do you have to share? Were you part of the celebration fifteen years ago at the church's 85th?

We'd like to start a Centennial Committee to plan for a month-long celebration in 2024 and need your help! One idea is for our current members to dig into old photo albums and share memories and recipes from the past. We can reach out to others who may no longer be with us but have some connection with 36th Street from years gone by to get their thoughts. Perhaps a form can be available—on paper and our website—for people to submit these memories that could be put into a book to be published for the festivities.

If interested in continuing the brainstorming, see Doug to set an initial time for this Centennial Committee to meet. While celebrating our past, we prepare posterity for 36th Street's next 100 years.

OUR PRAYER LIST

David Brewer (brother of Sharon Nonamaker's neighbor) had the surgery we announced and is doing well and wanted to say thank you for the prayers.

Vena Carpenter (Mark Carpenter's mother) is in MMH ICU critical care with Covid.

Mike Hill (Connie Hill's son) got to go home last week after 17 days in the hospital.

Sherry Morgan & Lisa Jackson (sisters, nieces of Angie Newberry) Sherry (Texas) is undergoing radiation for an inoperable tumor in her brain which has interfered with her vision. Lisa (Oklahoma) is also undergoing radiation for cancer.

Debbie and Rod Ramsey have requested prayers. They are both suffering from many health problems.

Philip Weese (Reba McDaniel's nephew) has Covid; he is in critical condition.

Those we are praying for with Covid: Aaleyah Carpenter, Makayla Carpenter, Seth Newberry, Emily Shuman, Aaron Wigal
