Is CYC for me? By: David McCullough

For many years, 36th Street has gone to CYC as a chance to give our youth a weekend to travel, have fun, and most importantly, learn more about God's will for their lives. I can speak from experience that it is a worship experience like no other. To be surrounded by THOUSANDS of Christians singing praises together and worshipping together is an experience that should not be missed out on. Are you still hesitant about going? Here are some more incentives to maybe encourage you to take a step outside the comfort zone and come along to this unique experience together!

So, what is CYC anyway? CYC stands for challenge youth conference. It is a weekend long event that takes place in Pidgeon Forge, Tennessee, that includes various speakers, skits, and the best acapella singing you will ever hear in your life. But wait, there's more! Being in the heart of a tourist town, there are various dinner theaters, museums, and other attractions that we as a church family can do together!

Maybe there are some who are reading this article and are saying to themselves, "I'm too old to go to a youth conference". Let me ease your mind by saying there is no age cap on the event whatsoever. I can guarantee you that the messages there are challenging for any spiritual level. As long as you are able to travel, this trip has your name written all over it.

There is one more thing that might win you over. As a Church family, when was the last time we took a trip together? Didn't we spend enough time away from each other last year because of the pandemic? Let us take this time to go somewhere where we can grow closer together, have fun with together, and most importantly, grow spiritually together! The deadline to sign up is the 26th!

From the Lemley family:

Just to say "thank you" does not begin to express our love and appreciation for all the prayers, cards, phone calls and visits during the past few weeks, they have all been a huge encouragement to us.

There were times when things were uncertain, but we always knew God had a plan and we were in His hands.

We love our church family and our prayer is to be back with you soon.

In His Love, Ed and Ilene
