“And let us not grow weary of doing good, for in due season we will reap, if we do not give up. So then, as we have opportunity, let us do good to everyone, and especially to those who are of the household of faith” Galatians 6:9-10.

Having the Holy Spirit, Jesus “went around doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil” because “God was with him” (Acts 10:38), so we, as His church at 36th Street, must do so as well. We too are given the Holy Spirit when we’re baptized (Acts 2:38) and have God with us (Matthew 28:20). We’re surrounded by so many in need, so we too must seek to do good like Jesus did.

We must do this collectively as the church but also as individual members of His body in our unique spheres of influence. So what is your mindset? Is the church a place for you to go during the week to check off a spiritual box, where you are a receiver of instruction and other good things? Or is it the people you worship and serve with, all giving their time and resources for Jesus’ kingdom?

We’re told to not grow weary in doing good. That’s an easy trap to fall into as our tendency is to use God’s blessings for selfish pursuits (James 4:1-4). Doing good, however, is to think and work outside of ourselves to benefit others. And this is what we must do to everyone with all that God has given us as He gives us opportunity just as Jesus did.

So, a clothing giveaway is not just an event to clean out our closets but an opportunity to help many struggling around us who need clothes. Widows Walk does good by bringing fellowship and support to those who know great loss. And a Mother’s Day cookout is not just a chance to eat great food but to honor the mothers among us and to reach out to our neighbors.

Did you see it as an opportunity to do good? Are you doing good ... well?
